

Course evaluation summary
A.1, Interaktionsdesign, 7,5p, HT2008

Teacher: Victor Kaptelinin

The students were asked to provide their comments on strengths and weaknesses of the course, as well as the possibilities for its development. Three students responded with their comments. The students were generally quite positive about the course, saying that the course was good, and the contents were very useful. They also mentioned that some topics were difficult to understand, too many assignments had to be completed during the last week of the course, and that there could be more material on graphics design.
